

MISS KANTOR LOSES HER SUIT AGAINST BELL

Complaint of Chicago Girl for Alleged Breach of Promise Dismissed.

The suit for $25,000 damages for alleged breach of promise brought by Miss Rachel Cantor, of Chicago, against Dr. V. C. Bell, a dentist, of Madison avenue, which has been on trial before a jury in the Supreme Court for the last two days, came to an end this afternoon. After hearing the evidence introduced by the fair plaintiff, on motion of the attorney for Dr. Bell, Justice Haswell dismissed the complaint.

Miss Cantor was on the stand for four hours under a severe cross-examination and other witnesses were called with the hope of proving an engagement between herself and the doctor. The last witness in her behalf was Dr. Henry Levine, frequently referred to in the case.

Dr. Levine astonished Miss Cantor's lawyer. He declared he had never heard of any engagement, and that he never saw any kissing.

A motion for a dismissal of the complaint on the ground that there was no contract of engagement proven was then made. Justice Haswell declared that the evidence fell far short of proving Miss Cantor's case and granted the motion.

Miss Cantor looked as if she had received a heavy blow. She was led from court by her friends.

LANGUAGE TEACHER GOES TO ASYLUM

He Attacked Lawyer Billington with a Beer Bottle Over a Woman.

In the Court of General Sessions Judge Cowing today added John Pohlman, a teacher of languages, insane and committed him to the Matteawan Asylum for the Criminal Insane.

Pohlman, who lived at No. 47 West Forty-seventh street, was indicted on a charge of having assaulted R. B. Billington, a lawyer with offices at No. 44 Broadway, by striking him over the head with a beer bottle on June 6.

Pohlman has been in the Tombs ever since, while medical examination into his mental state has been going on. Today, before Judge Cowing, Dr. McGuire and Foster testified that the man was mentally unbalanced, his delusions being chiefly concerned with women. His assault upon Mr. Billington was due to his conviction that the lawyer had stolen his sweetheart.

HAIR CAUGHT BY BELT; GIRL NEARLY KILLED.

Emily Kirwan, fourteen years old, of No. 419 East Twenty-eighth street, employed by the American Lithograph Company, at Nineteenth street and Fourth avenue, was working near a big machine on the fifth floor of the building to-day when her hair caught in the belt. Her scalp was nearly torn off and her face horribly mangled.

The screams of the girl attracted the attention of more than 50 employees and a panic was narrowly averted.

They all rushed to the fifth floor in time to see the victim fall to the floor. It was several minutes before the machinery could be brought to a stop. Several women fainted. A hurry call was sent for an ambulance and the girl was taken to the New York Hospital.

There is not much chance of her recovery.

ONE KILLED, SEVEN HURT IN RAILROAD RIOT.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 19.—One man was killed and seven seriously wounded in a riot at the new yards of the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad at Rutherford, four miles east of this city.

The rioters were all Hungarians, engaged in constructing yards. They had a holiday to-day on account of the rain and had been drinking when two of them got into a quarrel. The trouble spread until all of the foreigners were involved in shouting and cutting were going on in all parts of the yard. The fight continued for an hour before the railroad men could separate the rioters. The rioters were brought to the Harrisburg hospital.

CARLISLE BOOM SET AFLOAT UPSTATE.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., June 19.—Delos McGraw, chairman of the Jefferson County Democratic Committee, has addressed a circular letter to prominent Democrats of the State, proposing John N. Carlisle, Secretary of the Democratic State Committee, as candidate for Governor at the Democratic ticket.

WEST OUT ON THAMES.

HENLEY, England, June 19.—The Argonaut crew, of Toronto, arrived here this afternoon and immediately commenced preparations to resume their practice, interrupted when they left Canada with the exception of using towing machines on board ship.

R. W. West, of Philadelphia, who is entered for the Diamond Sculls, was out again on the river this morning.

MILLIONAIRE STRICKEN.

(Special to The Evening World.)
NEWPORT, R. I., June 19.—William Grosvenor, millionaire and one of the owners of the Grosvenor Cotton Mills, was stricken with paralysis yesterday and is in a critical condition. His villa on Beacon Hill was open a week ago. His brother, J. B. Grosvenor, whose wife won so many prizes at horse shows, died last year from the same cause very suddenly. Mrs. Grosvenor had arranged for a ladies' luncheon today.
